

I feel New Jersey's Do Not Call law is fine the way it is. I've had a big decrease in unwanted calls. Many times solicitors are rude and do not take no for an answer. The Do Not Call registry has stopped much of these calls. It should remain as strong as it is.